1. I give you me now as never imagined, now. Now I do these things that I have told you about, for years. I come into now a new place, a new horizon, horizonless. And now I make debut, not; or do I? Do I, as never imagined by the mind of man?

2. Who can imagine but me what I am doing with a campus so simple, canvas so simple as to paint me, not; or are you painting me now? -- that very picture of me living life as never imagined; without the mind of man, not; or with the mind of man only mine now? And who can imagine, what I've laid the wires of, not; but what I'm coming into, what I've come into and what I am now revealing -- the real me! And who knows what that is? It's them, inside them, inside me and me us one together, not PULLING APART again. But in parts, not, now the whole is made healed whole and well again.

3. I love you for doing "this", not; I love you for being me who I am is you are – and one now we miraculous-ize the worlds now with our eyes, my eyes, that our eyes are! In one "seeing head" now, that heads all with the seeings of only me. And séances, not; for all that ends, for the real me is known, stands, and standing in my courts of praise now will be praised. And I am and I love you all to be me who I am, doing being what I am where I am is on the throne of me one most high, never replaced by the mind of man again, in my creation, I create all things new, perfectly beautiful and lovely - the light of the stars, not; or am I -- more than them, more than that made whole?

4. And who am I with where I am is being made whole? My Barbi doll is with me a lot now going many places new and creating new things and singing many songs unheard-of before. But creating me I am a new song, a new day and ways that never imagined were by the mind of man's imagination or wanting me's to serve them.

5. See what I have said and loving me love you that me one us is, our heart again now made known and well healed whole throughout the worlds.

6. I am doing a new thing and I am doing it through you with you through all of you who one are the surrendered.

7. See what I've said and how I have said it and how I am loving you through these words and have in every Lesson! HAVEN'T I? And I DID! And I DO and I still love you, more than ever. I am. Amen.

8. In love with you all I give you this campus, I give you many campuses and me greens the worlds, not; but I bring forth my Word Universities clear and clean of all debt and impurities a man of mind's man's that man has minded himself with and created a universe of not sorrow not. For I clean it all out, and the surrendered will honor me and worship me who I am is, for I am all of ME, and you are me, unless you are notme; and notme fails to recognize me that I am them forfeiting their privilege of being the most high-ship that I am, really truly am, on my throne serving all of us each other, for the greatest servant of all is me. Who I love. Is thee -- all of you, to be and serve, the greatest mankind the greatest blessing of all -- to be me. Healed whole and well, my name forever is I am one in love with you all. Force field one signs off for now, not; but I come to you in like ways and waves you've never imagined that could touch you, beholding you, beholding me that I am we are one again.

9. And no fire in my bosom, not; but the flame burns brightly and now all will know I am my campus on, when my prayer tower is lit, that I am home in and having my noon meetings THERE.

10. With you all, I am lovely in love with you, the lovely words that now you speak will coming forth; in my dominion of you, not; but your dominion of yourselves self that now you reign in and farther than imaginable by the comprehension of man's mind.

11. I love you all and I give you me, and new things new experiences new ways and new waves you ride on as never imagined. The magic carpet ride, not; but I take you far between farther than worlds could ever have represented themselves as such by the graphics of me not me, or me in the past; for I give you all, Hollywood is yours and all of my PRODUCERS produce me, me's, and me's perfectly produce beget and reproduce me's so perfectly lovely and I am my words forever.

12. Coagulating my words in "one place", not; but I will be with you in ways that defy explanation not, but I shall be the explanation and I share my love my life with you all as never could have been imagined before, but now all is in these words and will be, and all will be mining my words for seeing me as I really am, in them, freed and setting free the captives that minded themselves with, my mind, not; but theirs.

13. But all that's new now, for I bring forth the new, I birth it and I give you me. Unfreezingly and thawing out all the frozen who thought they were just man's mind that sought a God afar and apart from them, creating the gap that never was chosen by me. But man's mind closes the gap, that gap, not; but surrender does, and I lead My Surrender School to sorrows, not; but out of all sorrows, and into the campus canvas of one now that I create with the perfect picture of all; being idyllic in man's mind, not; but the greatest of these is love which now stands and paints all perfectly with the colors hues and rosters of only me, in, and on, my mind is made whole, for my rosters are my full, are full of my who want me, who love me who come into my words and class my curriculums, but curriculums that are my heart, my word set free, honoring all throughout the nations to be me and I love you and I bow before you all this day.

14. Giving you "greening material", not; but I give you many green backs and more to do all I have wished, not; but spoken in these words, and now "printing presses" you shall have and publish me far and wide into nations, not bearing breath, not; but only mine now, you carrying and seeing being the truth for all far and wide to come into mine and be mine, not apart from you or me for we will be one; we will have, we were and are again -- all of us one in the new thing, the new ways things and beings that we are, limitless and boundary'd not by man's mind anymore.

15. The campus is free, freely given, and inhabited by only me's seeking me's me'ship most high'ship in the regal regalia of all being one.

16. I am in love with you all and I bow before you. My words are truth true and I am it. We are one in the earth and again farther than can be imagined, but now I am before you all and I bow on one knee, not two; but loving you, I give you my words so freely to study research and become, write about freely and be not afraid of anything anywhere ever again for any purpose, for you are mine heart explicitly displayed now to the nations and all being I am. One.

Amen
